Protests Cancel CIA Campus Interviews

On-campus recruiting by the Central Intelligence Agency at UCLA and San Fernando Valley State College has been postponed because of recent student protests.

Ed Shaw, who directs the UCLA placement center, reported that 25 UCLA students had signed for CIA interviews on Nov. 28, 29, 30 and Dec. 1.

Yesterday the sessions were rescheduled by the center for Jan. 23, 24, 25 and 26.

At Valley State, where Tuesday's CIA interviews were canceled, no future date has been set.

However, a CIA official cast doubt that any interviews would take place on the UCLA campus.

L. H. Gage, in charge of the CIA's Los Angeles office, said:

"I have decided not to appear on the UCLA campus, that's all. Students who express the desire to be interviewed will be interviewed in another location."

Dow Chemical Co. planned to keep its scheduled interviews on Nov. 28 at UCLA and Dec. 5 at Valley State in the face of expected protests.
